We are delighted to announce that our Greek partner SECOND TREE has established a sports team for refugees to enjoy themselves on most weekends.

For RaCIP at Second Tree, community parties are an essential activity in our community engagement efforts. The events enable us to create a space where the local Greek population and refugees can share joyous moments and exchange cultural traditions through dance, food, and games.

RACIP FOOTBALL MATCHES

On most weekends, we host a RaCIP sports day! This is a time when Second Tree's participants of RaCIP can come together and stretch their legs in some friendly football matches. Our teams are composed of a mixture of backgrounds and ages and provide an environment of healthy competition and laughs. On the side lines, non-football enthusiasts play volleyball, cards, or chat over some warm chai.

RACIP PARTY AT SECOND TREE

During our most recent party in January, dance was the main activity! With a community of people spanning many nations—including Somalia, Afghanistan, Iraq and Greece—favourite songs and dances were exchanged. For those less inclined to dance, a card game of Spoons kept spirits high. Events like these ensure a safe space where Greek locals and refugees can develop supporting relationships that are beneficial to morale and refugee integration!
